" The Directors wish to place on record their high appreciation of the valuable services rendered to the Bank by Mr. Y. Narasinga Rau whose services were kindly lent by Government. Mr. Narasinga Rau conducted his duties with conspicuous ability and tact and although the work was new to him, he soon mastered the details, opened the necessary registers, trained the staff and carried on the laborious duties incidental to the starting of a new Bank with the same success as one brought up in the Banking line. His dealings with the public were courteous and tactful and the Directors feel that they owe a large measure of the success hitherto attained, to their energetic and vigilant Secretary."
